

14 May 2009

Hanover wins contract with Babcock International Group plc hanover has been appointed by one of the UK's leading support services company, Babcock International Group, to provide political and policy monitoring. hanover's brief includes alerting Babcock to key developments in the political and policy environment across key market sectors such as defence, energy and transport.

hanover will report to John Gardner, Head of Government Relations at Babcock.

Charles Lewington, Managing Director at hanover, said: "I am very pleased that hanover is supporting Babcock, a company that is such a significant part of the UK's industrial base. We will be providing them with timely and comprehensive monitoring of the political and policy arena."

John Gardner, Head of Government Relations, Babcock International said:

"hanover will play a valuable role in keeping us informed about business relevant developments in our sectors of interest. We are delighted to have them on board".

-ends-

For more information, please contact Alessandra McKenna at hanover on 020 7400 4480.

Notes to editors

1. Babcock International Group plc is a leading support services company with an annual turnover of £2Bn. Their customer base is largely composed of government departments and organisations whose activities are heavily regulated by government.

hanover

2. hanover is an independent corporate communications and public affairs company whose clients include the Defence Medical Welfare Service, Royal British Legion, Diageo, Sky, Saga and 3UK.